ADVOCACY AND EMPOWERMENT FOR HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONALS

Nan Gallagher Presents “I Can’t Get No ... Satisfaction: Improving the Melody of Your Patient Satisfaction Ratings” and “Legal Update 2022” at the 2022 Maryland MGMA Annual Conference

On May 12, 2022, Nan Gallagher presented “I Can’t Get No ... Satisfaction: Improving the Melody of Your Patient Satisfaction Ratings” and “Legal Update 2022” for the Maryland Medical Group Management Association at Maryland LIVE! Casino & Hotel in Hanover, Maryland. Ms. Gallagher was honored to attend this very enlightening event.

The mission of Maryland MGMA is, “To be the recognized resource for improving the performance of medical practice management professionals using education, collaboration, advocacy, and leadership to inspire innovative, effective, and economical management processes.”— MarylandMGMA.com

For the better part of two decades, Nan Gallagher has devoted her career exclusively to the advocacy of healthcare professionals and entities. An accomplished healthcare litigation and administrative attorney, she focuses her practice on licensing, regulatory and credentialing matters in New Jersey and New York, all facets of administrative professional discipline, litigation, medical malpractice defense, Medical Staff and Society representation, General Counsel services, summary suspensions and fair hearings, peer review QA investigations, credentialing assistance, EMR and cybersecurity counseling, estate and disaster planning for protected health information, physician burnout & impairment, disruptive behavior, online persona management, employment and labor counseling, Qui Tams, ERISA and state out-of-network appeals, audits, billing and coding counseling, agency investigations, and HIPAA and OSHA compliance counseling.

Ms. Gallagher is a nationally recognized authority on groundbreaking healthcare topics and is sought after for her tireless and dedicated focus on often controversial pro-physician platforms. In addition to various medical societies, she is proud to serve as General Counsel to the Professional Assistance Program of New Jersey as well as the Medical Staffs of Morristown Medical Center, Chilton Medical Center, Hackensack Meridian Health Palisades Medical Center, and CarePoint Hoboken University Medical Center. Making her clients’ challenges her own, Ms. Gallagher is often touted for her approachability, accessibility, and unwavering zeal in support of the rights of those whom she represents.
